INTRODUCTION

The Privacy Act gives Canadian citizens and people present in Canada the right to have access to information about them that is held by the federal government. It also protects against unauthorized disclosure of that personal information. In addition, it strictly controls how the government will collect, use, store, disclose, and dispose of any personal information.

The Sept-Îles Port Authority became a Canadian Port Authority under the provisions of the Canada Marine Act on May 1, 1999.

The Sept-Îles Port Authority, benefiting from the natural advantages of the Bay of Sept-Îles, has the mission to remain an important development agent, by providing adequate installations and by dispensing efficient services in a partnership association and with a sustainable development approach.

This report is prepared in accordance with section 72 of the Privacy Act.

The Annual Reports are tabled in Parliament in accordance with section 72 of the Privacy Act.

STRUCTURE OF THE ATIP OFFICE

The Access to Information and Privacy Coordinator oversees the implementation of the Privacy Act within the Sept-Îles Port Authority and ensures compliance with the legislation. The Sept-Îles Port Authority Access to Information Coordinator is Ms. Patsy Keays, Director of Corporate Affairs and Corporate Secretary.
